TRAIN'S AWFUL LEAP WAR NOW DECLARED.

Eighteen-Hour Special Plunges Over High Embankment.

COACHES TURN OVER

There Were Over Fifty Passengers on Board and Nearly Every One of Them Was Hurt, Many Seriously.

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 23.—The Pennsylvania special, a fact eighteen-hour train between New York and Chicago, was wrecked at Diamond, seven miles east of here, shortly after midnight Saturday morning. There were fifty-four passengers on board, nearly all of whom were injured, some seriously. John F. Kline, postmaster of Joliet, Ill., was fatally injured. He was taken to a hospital at Altoona.

Many prominent Chicagoans were on the train, all of whom were seriously injured. Among those injured were F. A. Bussem, postmaster of Chicago; Samuel F. Nixon of Nixon & Zimmerman, theatrical proprietors; G. A. Singer, manager of the La Salle Street theater; Chicago; Lightner Henderson, civil engineer; George S. Wood, manager of the Colonial theater, Chicago; and J. J. Kern, ex-state's attorney, Chicago.

The train was running about fifty miles an hour and was thirty-five minutes late. When rounding the sharp curve at Black Diamond the whole train swayed. The engine and smoking car remained on the track, but the Pullman coaches left the rails and plunged over a sixty-foot embankment. All attempts to obtain information from railroad officials met with rebuffs at every hand, and at an early hour Saturday, while it was reported there were fifty-four passengers on the train when it left Altoona, only forty were said then to have been accounted for. It was believed the missing were dead in the wreckage in the river, into which the train plunged over the embankment, near the scene of the Johnstown flood.

At an early hour Saturday morning this city was practically besieged by newspaper men on their way to the wreck. Trains were few and to reach the scene it was necessary to take a ten-mile journey around the mountains. From the scene it was learned by telephone the train was late and the engineer was trying to make up lost time.

The wreck was caused by what is termed by railroad men as an unavoidable accident. The brake rigging on the first Pullman following the combination coach dropped down and tore up the right rail for 300 yards. The engine and combination coach did not leave the rails, but the four Pullmans following plowed down over the embankment to the river bank, 100 feet below, overturning when they reached the bottom. The eighteen-hour train travels at a high rate of speed coming down the mountain. When the brake rigging fell it either stripped the heads off the bolts holding the rails to the ties or tore up the rails themselves.

AUDIENCE REMAINED.

Performers Went Through Their Lines With Smoke About Them.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Cleveland, O., says: Members of a company playing at the Empire theater were forced to sing while the place was on fire and the auditorium was filled with smoke. The audience refused to move. Although the cry of fire was raised, the spectators refused to be panic-stricken and would not budge from their seats.

Announcement was made from the stage that the place was afire and it was suggested that the audience should retire in order. The people would not go out, and when the smoke became so thick that the stage could not be seen from the last ten rows the holders of the seats there were moved up.

The chorus girls and the actors went through their lines red-eyed and weeping from the smoke. Jokes were cracked at the expense of the "fire" and the entire programme was given. Crossed electric light wires started the blaze in the fanroom of the theater, and damage to the extent of $1,000 was done. The fire burned for half an hour, and above the singing of the chorus could be heard the blows of the firemen.

Four Drowned.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Four people were drowned in Soajquada creek at the Elmwood avenue entrance to Delaware park. The dead: Mrs. William H. Drummer, twenty-eight years old; Antony Belter, thirteen years old; Richard Belter, twelve years old; Ruth Drummer, fourteen years old.

Signed by President.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The president signed the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, the first regular supply measure to be acted on by congress.

Doctor's Desperate Deeds.

Albuquerque, N. M., Feb. 23.—His meager supply of opiates exhausted, Dr. Sherwood B. lives of New York, an oarsman, who accidentally shot himself at Datil, plunged the needle with which he had been vainly probing for the bullet into a vital organ and died almost instantly.

Honduras Gives Notice That Hostilities Be

OTHERS MAY COME IN

Indications Are That In Addition to the First Named and Nicaragua, Salvador and Guatemala Will Be Involved.

City of Mexico, Feb. 23.—War is the actual condition in Central America, said Under Secretary of State Al gara to a representative of the Associated Press.

"We have received a message from the Mexican consul general at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, which says: 'Minister of Foreign Affairs Cullon declares that active war has been declared against Nicaragua. President Bonilla is now at the head of the Honduran troops and marching to the frontier to meet the forces of President Zelaya.'"

In response to questions as to the attitude of Salvador in the struggle Secretary Al gara was reticent, but when assured that the Associated Press had received information that this republic would be forced to become involved as an ally of Honduras, he admitted that the department had received telegrams corroborating this.

In summing up the fighting qualities of the four republics likely to become embroiled in an international war in the near future a well known capitalist of Central America, now in this city, said: "Guatemala can mobilize 35,000 men, and has a standing army of 5,000; Salvador can mobilize 40,000 men, and her standing army is 3,000, while Nicaragua, which has a standing army of 10,000, can mobilize 40,000. Nicaragua is the only country owning gunboats, her little navy consisting of six boats.

"The Salvadoreans are by far the most patriotic of the four peoples, and make the best fighters. Their troops are drilled by Chilean officers, and the discipline is excellent. The Guatemalans, on the other hand, are the poorest fighters, probably from the fact that there is great discontent among them."

CLEVELAND'S TRIBUTE.

Executive Praises the First Chief Magistrate of the Nation.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Former President Grover Cleveland was the orator of the day at the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, which was held under the auspices of the Union League club of this city. Mr. Cleveland addressed an audience that completely filled the great auditorium, and his oration was greeted with every manifestation of approval.

Americans are, as a rule, Mr. Cleveland said, too prone to lose sight of the proper observance of public holidays. The Fourth of July, he asserted, has "degenerated to a revel of senseless noise and dangerous explosion which bears in its train far more of mishap and accident than the lessons of good citizenship of pride of country."

The republic still has, he said, imperative need of Washington and his example and teachings are as important to the present generation as his labors and guidance were necessary in his own time.

SURVIVORS SAVED.

Ten Persons on the Wrecked Steamer Berlin Were at Last Recovered.

Hook of Holland, Feb. 23.—After more than thirty hours of almost incessant effort and splendid work of the Dutch life boatmen were rewarded by reaching the wreck of the British steamer Berlin, and ten survivors on the afterpart of the vessel were saved. Buffeted and riven back time after time the sturdy Dutchmen refused to relax their attempts in behalf of the handful of shipwrecked people. They launched their boat repeatedly, only to be foiled by the mountainous seas.

HAS SMALLPOX.

Representative Taken Down While in His Legislative Seat.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 23.—Representative J. M. Salts of Phelps county was taken down with smallpox while in his seat on the floor of the house. Commotion among the other members ensued. The chamber was fumigated.

Representative Salts was in conference with Governor Folk a short time before going to the house. The governor said: "I noticed the marks on Mr. Salts' face, but thought nothing of them at the time. Possibly I shall have to get vaccinated now, but I don't feel at all alarmed."

Considered Ten Minutes.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The senate passed the bill making appropriations for the military academy. The bill, carrying $1,947,383, was passed just as it came from the committee, only ten minutes being consumed in consideration of the measure.

Adjourned Until Monday.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The Brownsville inquiry before the senate committee on military affairs was adjourned until Monday.

THE A. AND M. APPROPRIATIONS.

Citizens Go to Austin to Attend Hearing of Appropriation Committee.

Hon. W. C. Davis, representative from Brazos county, has written friends here that a special hearing will be given by the Finance Committee to the friends of the A. and M. College on next Monday night, Feb. 25.

Mr. Davis has requested that a delegation of Bryan citizens attend the hearing; accordingly the following named gentlemen, and perhaps others, will leave today for Austin: President H. H. Harrington, J. A. Myers, J. Webb Howell, A. W. Wilkerson, W. Wipprecht and F. M. Law.

The citizens of Bryan feel a very close relationship towards the College and this move to help in securing adequate support from the legislature is most commendable.

The Eagle learns from Mr. F. M. Law, president of the Alumni Association, that prominent alumni from different sections of the state will attend the hearing in Austin on Monday night. Here's hoping success to a most worthy cause.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

And still no wiser would he be About the greater mystery Of women's clubs.
Oh, women's clubs!
Can't you foresee the final end

The elegant home of Mrs. Henry Rohde was the scene of a very pretty George Washington party on Thursday afternoon at four o'clock; the occasion being the fourth birthday of her grandson, Master Joseph Henry Malony, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Maloney. The Rhode home lends itself most readily to such functions, so spacious and elegant are its apartments. The decorations were tiny little flags draped over the house together with graceful folds of bunting. Thirty little tots enjoyed the many pleasures provided. A fish pool was one of the most enjoyable, as each child with hook and line fished from the pool pretty souvenirs. The birthday cake with our candles was then cut. After the serving of delicious cream and cake the children were ushered out on the pretty lawn to hunt peanuts. Miss Myrtle Evans and Master Dan DeMaret Jr. received the prizes, a pretty cup and saucer, for finding the most peanuts. Master Joseph received many pretty presents. Every detail of this party was fittingly carried out and nothing left undone to make the children have a good time. Mrs. Maloney was assisted in entertaining the children by her mother, Mrs. Henry Rohde, and sisters, Miss Nellie and Alline Rhode.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT.

Sometime since Mayor Butler was invited to be present at the last meeting of the M. I. C's., February 20th and shortly after the hour of meeting he arrived and was most cordially received. Mrs. Sims with a few well chosen words introduced Mayor Butler to the ladies and stated the object of his visit, that of civic improvement. As Mrs. Sims remarked, "Mayor Butler is 'the right man in the right place,'" and all the ladies fully agreed that he was after seeing how anxious he was to have a better and cleaner Bryan. The ladies and he each agreed to co-operate with each other for the betterment of our little city. Mayor Butler will indeed be a welcome visitor to the M. I. C. club rooms, for he leaves an air of enthusiasm which all feel alike.

The M. I. C's., a club that never lets an opportunity to show its patriotism go by, will celebrate a day dear to the hearts of all Texans, "Texas Day" March 6, 1907. Only the members of the club will be present, but they are looking forward with pleasure to it for the following splendid program will be rendered:

Roll Call.
Original of the Texas Bureau.
Paper—"The Educational and Continued Growth of Texas in the Past 25 Years"—Mrs. Buchanan.
Which Institution of Learning Will Give to Texas the Best Results—the A. & M. C. or the College of Industrial Arts for Girls?—10 on each side.
Chorus by Club—"My Country 'Tis of Thee."

Miss Ethel Cavitt was hostess to the Embroidery Club on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. This home was most tastefully arranged with fragrant flowers and pot plants and the guests found a most gracious welcome waiting them as they entered the large hall. The day was ideal and the occasion was one of perfect pleasure with Miss Ethel as hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. R. Cavitt. Dainty refreshments were served. Those serving as substitutes were Mrs. J. T. Hanway, Miss Edyth Rhodes, Mrs. Ed Hall, Mrs. Ralph Risser of Ballinger.

"The Bachelors" entertained at a dance last Friday night at College Station. The large crowd present was most enjoyably entertained. The grand march was led by Miss Arrie Cole of this city and Mr. W. A. Price of College.

The home of Roland Jones near Benchley was the scene of an old time social on Friday night. Neighbors and friends from a distance were present and kept the fiddler going until early in the morning.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hensarling at Wellborn was the scene of a pleasant entertainment Friday night. Besides a crowd from the surrounding neighborhood, Bryan was also represented.

Miss Malcolm McInnis was hostess yesterday afternoon to about twenty young lady friends. An old fashioned candy pulling was enjoyed.

The next meeting of the Embroidery Club will be held with Miss Nellie Batte on next Tuesday.

I knew when I put prices where they ought to be they would be some knockers, but like Carrie Nation, they will be compelled to sell their little hatchets for souvenirs. The latest is, that I use inferior stock for material. Ask any reliable Marble dealer in Texas if he can buy any better material than the following: Average Rutland, white; Average Sutherland Falls; Average Pittsford Valley; Average Creole Georgia; Average Cherokee Georgia; and Italian Marble. The first three mentioned are quarried in Vermont, the next two in Georgia and there is no better Marble in the United States than the above. The last is quarried in Italy, near Carrara. If there is a dealer in Texas that can buy any better Marble than these tell him Hilger wants to see him.

Winter visitors to Texas this plenty of opportunity to bask in warm sunshine and inhale the fragrance of flowers. A man moving south from Vermont said the other day that he could hardly keep the station.

Bryan is one of the most frequently and favorably spoken of smaller cities of the state: Cotton bales this season, and the enterprises of large import recently established and now under way, to-advantages and commercial supremacy give people something to think and talk about when Bryan is mentioned.

WHY THE BEST SEED CORN PAYS.

A Difference of 20 Bushels an Acre Shows Between the Best and Poorest Seed in the Test.

Bulletin No. 92, which has just been issued from the Texas Experiment Station, is entitled "A Test of the Producing Power of Some Texas Seed Corn." As the name indicates, the bulletin gives the details of some tests carried on here at the main experiment station for the purpose of determining the germinating power and the producing qualities of some of the samples of seed corn planted by the farmers of Texas. The tests show that the ears of corn planted by the farmers of this State vary greatly both in germinating power and in the yields per acre. The average farmer gathers his seed corn along with the rest of the crop and simply goes to the crib at planting time in the spring and selects a few of the best looking ears and uses them for planting.
The tests carried on here show that such a system is extremely crude and entirely haphazard, and that the yield per acre will be many bushels per acre less than what it might be with the expenditure of no more labor in planting and cultivating. A little care and foresight in selecting seed will add from a fourth to three-fourths to the total yield of the crop.

The tests carried on here may be briefly summarized as follows: Requests were sent out to a large number of Texas farmers for samples of the corn they were using in planting. The samples received were planted at the same time, in the same sort of soil, and given the same cultivation. A careful record was kept of each ear of the corn planted, each ear being planted in a row to itself and the yield kept separate. The soil was thin and the season dry and cold and the yield was small—only 14 bushels per acre on the average. The striking thing about the test, however, was that the best ear yielded 26 bushels per acre, or 12 bushels above the average, while the poorest ear yielded only 6 bushels per acre, or 8 bushels less than the average. The difference between the best yield and the poorest was 20 bushels per acre.

Now, suppose the farmer had selected all his seed from corn as good as the best ear in this test, it is clear that the average yield would have been 26 bushels per acre instead of 14, or an increase of 85 per cent. over the amount obtained by the usual method followed by the farmers of this state. Of course, in better soils and more favorable seasons the yield from each ear would be much larger, but there is no reason to believe that the proportion of yield would be very different from that given in these tests.

If, then, the farmer could plant nothing but the very best seed, it seems quite possible that he could increase his total yield by one-half or more. In the test given at 50 cents per bushel the value of the crop would have been increased $6 per acre.

The question arises as to what the ordinary farmer can do to improve the quality of his seed. The answer is that every farmer can do much to better the quality of his seed, and that, too, almost without expense. In the first place the seed should not be selected from the crib but from the stalk before the corn is gathered. The farmer should go through his crop when it is fully ripe and take his seed ears from the best and hardiest stalks, with due regard to the size of the ear, the shape of the grain and the closeness of the grains on the cob. The next year the seed ears should be planted in separate rows and a careful record be kept of the yield of each ear and the seed for the next year be selected from the ear that showed the largest yield. From the product of this same ear, the best ears should again be selected and planted in separate rows in like manner in order to produce seed for the following year.

In the Matter of Tips.

The man who tips the highest gets the best service and the most ostentatious deference. "Give this to the cook," said a St. Louis parvenu, handing a dollar to the waiter with his order, "and tell him to cook it my way." "Give this to the cook," said a scribe at the next table, handing a two dollar bill to the waiter with his order, "and tell him to cook it his own way, for he is a better cook than I am." We will not be out-shone. We will not shrink in any man's shadow. At the same time the pace is too hot and fast for most of us.—St.
Louis Globe-Democrat.

Localized Him.

A stranger wishing to play golf at North Berwick saw some one in authority upon the matter.

"What name?" asked the dignified official in charge.

"De Neufeldt," the stranger replied.

"Mon," said the official in a tone of disgust, "we canna fash oorsels wi' names like that at North Berwick.

Ye'll stair in the morn at ten fifteen to the name of Fairgusson."—Blackwood's Magazine.

Progressing.

Miss Weston—And have you played much golf, Mr. Jones? Mr. Jones—Well, no; can't say I've played much, but I've walked round the links several times in golf clothes, and I'm beginning to understand the language.—Illustrated Bits.

The best part of beauty is that which no picture can express.—Bacon.

Courage!

If you get a job the first day you look for it don't be discouraged. You may lose it Saturday.—Atlanta Journal.

Manhattan Island.

Indians who accepted $24 from Governor Peter Minuit for Manhattan Island in 1626 did not make such a bad bargain, for if they had invested that sum of money at compound interest at the prevailing rates since then their heirs would now have $12,000,000,000.

MARRIAGE CUSTOMS.

The Change From the Era When Wives Were Taken by Force.

Marriage customs have changed everywhere with the advance of civilization. Anglo-Saxons in ancient times, it is said, used to capture their wives by force from their fathers or their husbands, it did not matter which.

This was before Augustine came to preach Christianity. Then purchase was more common than capture, although the latter seems to have been frequent enough to the times of Ethelbert to need regulation by law. By this law a man might run away with a woman, provided he afterward paid her previous owner, be he father or husband, 50 shillings. If it was husband who had thus been deprived of his wife, the woman's captor had not only to pay him the fine, but also to buy him another wife. In any case the stolen woman belonged to her captor.

If a man had purchased his bride in the days of Ethelbert and afterward concluded he had paid too much for her, it was lawful for him to return her to her former owner and claim again the purchase price, provided that he had not previously expressed satisfaction by making the bride a present on the morning after the wedding.

The next step was the "foster lien," when the bride price was paid on the day of espousal and was supposed to compensate the parent for the cost of bringing up his daughter. It seems, however, that this soon fell into disrepute, as there was no law against the father engaging his daughter to numerous suitors, taking from each the "foster lien" and, of course, cheating all but one on the wedding day, which at that time was only the day of betrothal, when the suitor gave a "wed" or pledge for the future performance of his contract. If the suitor did not claim his bride within two years after the wedding day, he forfeited all right to her and to whatever money or goods he had paid for her. If the woman and her father broke their promises, the father had to give the suitor four times as much as the suitor had already paid him.

As civilization advanced the bride price was given to the woman herself and became her dowry, while nowadays the tables are frequently turned, and the bride settles the money on her husband.

FOSTER'S WEATHER BULLETIN.

(Copyrighted 1906, by W. T. Foster.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 25 to March 1, warm wave 24 to 28, cool wave 27 to March 3. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about March 2, cross west of Rockies country by close of 3, great central valleys 4 to 6, eastern states 7. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about March 2, great central valleys March 4, eastern states March 6. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about March 5, great central valleys March 7, eastern states 9.

Principal feature of this disturbance will be the great high temperature wave that will accompany it and which will bring about the only spring-like weather of that month and the highest temperatures of March. From about March 6 to end of month trend of temperatures will be decidedly downward, fluctuating, of course, but more down than up.

Immediately following February 24 will come a great high temperature wave causing the warmest weather of this month.
The storms will be quite severe not far from February 28 with great extremes of temperature.

I expect more cold weather in March than usual north of parallel 40 and more warm weather than usual south of that line.
Indications are that rainfall will be deficient in Western Texas, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Western Iowa, in all the section south of the Potomac and east of Nashville. Elsewhere rainfall will be from about to above normal. Most rain near a line drawn from Troy, N. Y., by way of Pittsburg, Chicago, Peoria, St.
Louis, Cairo and Memphis. Middle and south Atlantic states will be deficient in moisture.

Most severe weather of March may be expected near March 1, 7, 15 and 29. June will depart from its usual quiet features and adopt more strenuous methods. July, usually a quiet weather month, will be greatly stirred up by severe storms and radical weather changes. August will bring tropical hurricanes on the seas bordering our southern coasts and severe or dangerous storms on the continent.

The Redding, California, Searchlight says: "Foster's weather predictions are the most dependable forecasts that are available and a great many people throughout the country are governed by them."

The House committee on agricultural expenditures ripped Chief Moore of the weather bureau up the back because he seems to have diverted the appropriations made for five observatories all to one observatory at Mount Weather out in the Virginia mountains and known as the weather bureau summer resort. The committee developed that $161,000.00 have been expended on Mount Weather and that Chief Moore is trying to expend $100,000 more. It was also developed that one-third of all appropriations for general expenses of the weather bureau is being applied to Mount Weather the item of furnishing the latter with carpets, blinds, furniture, etc., being more than $6,000. For stationery, fuel and miscellaneous Mount Weather got about $12,000 out of $29,000 appropriated for the whole country. The Smithsonian weather records, covering 40 or more years and costing millions of dollars lie idle in the weather bureau vaults unusable because they are not even indexed, not reduced to conditions for scientific research while only $10,000 of that useless Mount Weather expenditure would put those records in condition to be used in weather investigations.

FERNANDO. No. 3703

THE GREAT IMPORTED GERMAN COACH STALLION

FERNANDO

whose registered number is 3703 has recently been purchased for the sum of $3000.00 by Prof. Nathan Powell. Fernando is a magnificent specimen of the celebrated Oldenburg horse, which has the longest line of pure blood breeding of any horse in the world. The Royal princess established the breed in 1512.

This horse is a deep bay with black points, 16 hands, and weighs 1350 pounds, and was foaled May 4, 1903. He has an exceptionally good disposition, and is an individual of character.

Fernando will stand the coming season at College and Bryan.

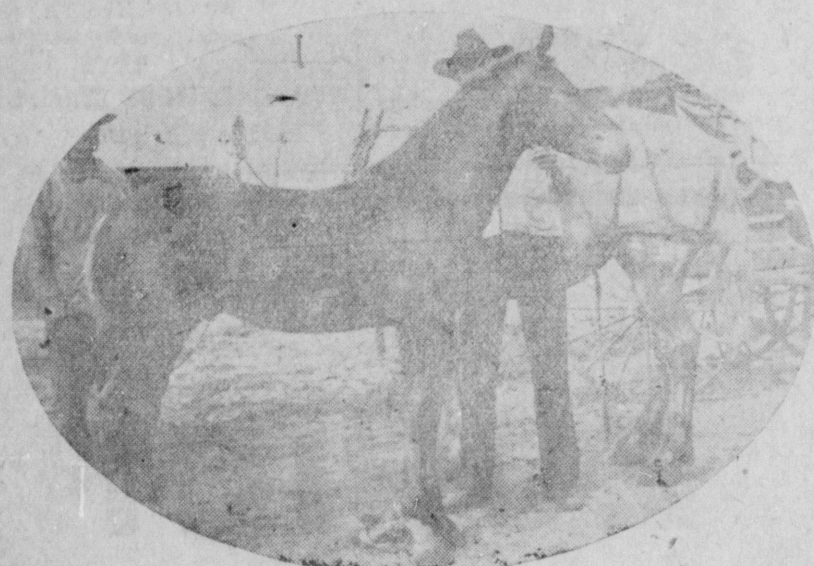

The German coach horse is noted for size, action, speed, character, and fixedness of type in breeding. The colts are large, handsome horses with spirit and action, just such a horse as every one needs.

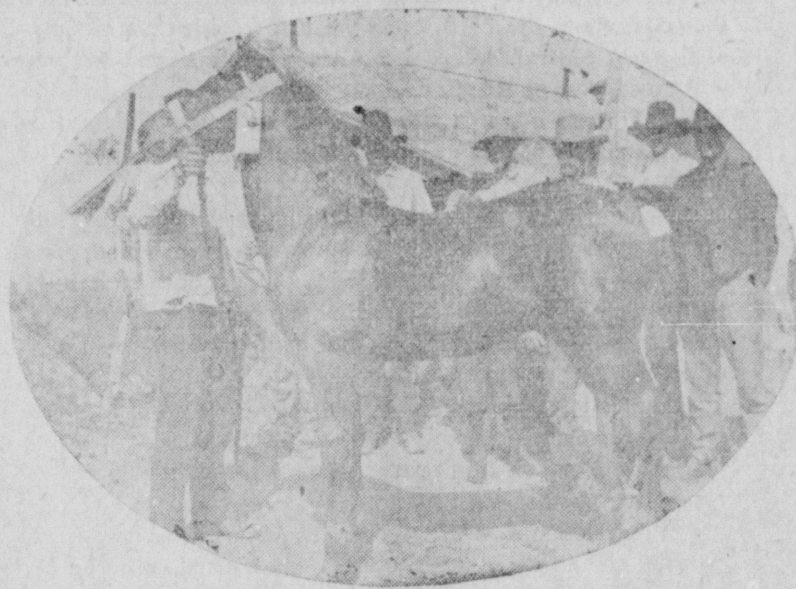

Raise colts like me by breeding to a German Coach Stallion.

My mother was a bronco, my father a German Coach.

Here is my gray mother, my father was a Dutch horse from Germany

My owner was offered $250 for me; I am one-half Dutch.

Colts at Weaning Time.

These colts are now being raised in a county in Texas. Their mothers are ordinary mares, and their father is an imported German coach horse. There are 81 of them, and you could not buy any one of them at weaning time for less than $100.00.

For the first time in the history of Brazos county the people now have the opportunity of breeding to the Imported German coach horse, Fernando, and of getting colts like these. Now is the time for every wide-awake farmer to supply himself with a stock of the very finest and best horses in the world.

The German coach horse is recognized as the strongest breeder in the world. You know before you breed your mare what kind of a colt you are going to get. The cuts show how every colt is like his father.

Fernando's father, grand-father, and great-grand father, have been first prize winners in their home provinces in Europe, and second prize winners at the great annual horse show at Paris, France. Fernando is truly a Great Stallion.

After March 1st he will be at Tucker's Stable, Bryan, Texas, ready for service.

TO UNITE.

The following report of joint committee of the two churches mentioned, with a comment by the editor of the Christian Evangelist showing the movement towards union of the two large bodies, the Christian and Baptist churches, both of which are well represented in our city and State, we feel that it will be of interest to a number of our readers:

"The church union committees appointed by the Baptist convention of Ontario and the Disciples' convention of Ontario met in the Baptist mission rooms yesterday afternoon. The doctrinal positions, the church polity and methods of work of the two bodies, and the question of an acceptable name in case a union should be consummated were discussed. In the matter of doctrine it was found that the teachings of the two denominations were practically the same, although considerable divergence was noticeable in terminology and modes of expression. Regarding church polity, it was found that there were differences in detail, although the real principles that regulated the polity of each body were identical. The same was found to be true in reference to methods of church work. The question of a name was carefully considered and several were suggested that would in some way represent the distinctive positions of both denominations, but no agreement was reached. The matter of co-operation in special localities, where both bodies were represented, was discussed, but it was decided that no specific recommendations could be made to such churches until negotiations had taken a more definite shape.

In the meantime the committee recommended that the traveling secretary of the Disciples, Rev. R. W. Stevenson, and the superintendent of Baptist Home Missions, Rev. W. E. Norton, should confer with each other in reference to work in the newer districts, so that in so far as possible overlapping might be avoided."

[If the question of name is the only one that really separates the two bodies in that region, there should certainly be some mutual agreement reached on that subject. We have before suggested that the name, "Churches of Christ" (Baptist) and "Churches of Christ" (Disciples) would serve the purpose of preserving the historical continuity and identity of the churches for legal purposes, involving their respective properties and for whatever other distinction may be necessary until the churches would become so blended that these parenthetical names might be dropped. We can see no reason why there should be any objection to this kind of an agreement, either on the part of Baptists or Disciples of Christ, provided it meets the legal difficulty.]

INSTITUTE FOR THE FEEBLE-MINDED.

The thanks of the people of Texas are due to the Hon. Lee Beatty of Caldwell county and his associate legislators who unanimously reported the bill for the establishment of an institute for the feeble-minded and defectives. The files of The Chronicle will show that it has earnestly advocated such a measure.

The bill is needed sorely, and the good women who gave their time and labor to get the report in its favor have done a service to the afflicted which heaven will bless.

The long cherished idea that it was useless to try to do anything for those mentally defective, and that they must be left in the rayless night of intellectual and moral darkness, has been long since shattered.

Patience and skill and study of mental phases and phenomena have enabled earnest, conscientious, humane and sympathetic men and women to carry the light of intelligence and connected thought into minds which seemed hopelessly darkened.

The education of Miss Helen Keller, who was totally deaf, dumb and blind from birth is one of the most marvelous achievements of this age. She was in nowise mentally defective, but being utterly unable to see, speak or hear, to teach her anything seemed a hopeless task, yet she is today a cultured lady, learned not only in her own but in dead languages and mathematics, and a most charming writer.

A young girl who is being similarly trained can be seen at the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Austin.

If such result can be achieved almost as beneficial results will follow, as experience shows, where the mind is weak and the intellectual facilities are, as it were, atrophied from disuse.

Such minds can be strengthened and developed; the darkness with which nature has enshrouded a human mind can be dissipated and light be let in upon a human mind and soul, leading the unfortunate into the paths of intelligent and upright living, and into the way which leads to heaven and God.—Houston Chronicle.

VIOLENT SHOCK.

It Occurs at Kingston Friday, Causing Quite a Scare.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 22.—A violent shock of earthquake on Friday caused quite a scare. It was the heaviest since the disaster of Jan. 14. No loss of life occurred, but several of the damaged buildings collapsed.

TYPICAL SCENE IN JAMAICA.

Best since the disaster of Jan. 14. No loss of life occurred, but several of the damaged buildings collapsed.

MORE LUMBER MILLS.

One Hundred and Sixty-Two New Ones Built Last Year.

Baltimore, Feb. 23.—A correspondent at Rusk, Tex., in the last issue of the Manufacturers' Record, in dealing with the expansion of the lumber industry in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, says:

"During the twelve months ended Dec. 31 last 162 new mills of large capacity were built in the states of Louisiana and Texas alone, with prospects of an increased number being built the present year. In addition, quite a number of old mills destroyed by fire were rebuilt on a much larger scale. In the meantime the number of mills ranging from 10,000 to 30,000 capacity, which were erected in the year, exceeds by far the number of large ones built. For instance, in one east Texas county alone more than twenty of such small mills were put in operation and in another county there are something more than sixty of these small mills, not one of which will exceed 30,000 capacity per day. Ten thousand a day per mill is a conservative estimate for these mills, and, allowing that they were run five days each week, they would give for this one county a cut of 7,500,000 a year. There is a belt of country running north through eastern Texas and western Louisiana from the Gulf of Mexico far up into Arkansas, which will probably average 150 miles in width, and which contains some of the finest pineries in the United States. Within the last thirty days some big timber deals have been made in this territory, including one of $400,000 for 8,000 acres of long-leaf pine, another for a pinery estimated to cut 150,000,000 feet, and a third for 50,000 acres of long-leaf pine."

LUNACY COMMISSION.

Reports Revived Saturday Jerome Was Nearly Ready to Ask One.

New York, Feb. 23.—Reports were revived Saturday that District Attorney Jerome was nearly ready to bring in an application for a lunacy commission to examine Hark K. Thaw. The district attorney, it is said, questioned Mrs. J. T. Deemar and C. F. Bingaman, the Thaw family physicians, who were summoned as witnesses for Thaw, and from what he heard from them regarding insanity in the family of Mrs. William Thaw he became convinced the strain had descended to Thaw and he is now insane.

That Thaw's wife is suffering severely under the ordeal is plainly apparent, and some fears are expressed that she might not be able to withstand the trying situation still before her. Judging from the progress of Mr. Jerome's cross-examination, so far as developed, he cannot possibly finish with the witness under two days. She looks gaunt and hollow-eyed.

Injured by Bomb.

Odessa, Feb. 23.—A bomb was thrown beneath the carriage of Chief of Police Colvon Gessseberg as he was driving in the center of the city Saturday afternoon. The explosion wrecked the carriage, severely injuring the chief of police and shattered the windows of all houses in the vicinity. The would-be assassin escaped.

COUPLE CONFER.

"My Dear, Brave Little Wife," Said Harry K. Thaw.

New York, Feb. 23.—Tomb's holiday rules were relaxed Friday and Mrs.
Thaw was permitted to call on her husband. One of his attorneys was also present. On Thursday it was said that the young woman was on the verge of illness, and that a cup of brother had been her only substance for two days. She was so weakened as the result of her day's experience that she retired immediately upon reaching her apartments, and did not rise till late Friday.

It was well after noon when Mrs.
Thaw arrived at the prison. She was accompanied by Daniel O'Reilly, one of her husband's counsel, and was shown at once into the consultation room. There had been reports in some of the early editions of the newspapers Friday to the effect that Thaw was himself in a bad physical condition, but when he appeared to greet his wife he declared he was feeling exceptionally well and was enjoying his usual vigorous health. As Thaw rushed into the conference room he clasped his wife in his arms, saying: "My dear, brave little wife."

The two talked together for a long while, and then Mr. O'Reilly was called into the conference.

FAVORS LIMITATION.

Work of the Special Agents Severely Condemned by House.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The house in committee of the whole placed itself on record in favor of limiting the power by special agents of the department of the interior. By a vote of 104 to 17 it passed an amendment offered by Mr. Mondell of Wyoming which restricts the use of the appropriation bill to pay the salaries of such agents.
In the two hours of debate speeches were made by Messrs. Lacey of Iowa, Mann of Illinois, Gaines of Tennessee and others.

The work of the special agents was severely condemned, and the orders of the president regarding final proof of homestead criticised as working unnecessary hardships upon settlers.

Mr. Clark of Florida offered a resolution calling upon the secretary of war for a statement as to the cost of the Philippines since their acquisition by the United States, but it was defeated 163 to 105.

The house passed 360 senate private pension bills in thirty minutes.

TOWNS CAPTURED.

Nicaraguan Army in Possession of Two Places in Honduras.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 23.—Nicaraguan forces on Feb. 20 captured without opposition the town of El Trunfo, in Honduras. After hard fighting the Nicaraguan army occupied San Bernardo, an excellent position, owing to the fact that it is in communication by land and water with the Nicaraguan base of operations. Many Hondureans were killed or wounded and the retreating army left quantities of ammunition and rifles on the field. The casualties of the Nicaraguan side were a few men wounded.

HELD GOOD.

Chief Justice Burford of Oklahoma Has So Ruled.

Guthrie, Feb. 23.—Chief Justice Burford held good the Federal indictment recently returned here against Harry A. Gorusch of Kansas City, secretary of the Southwestern Lumbermen's association; J. H. Foresman of Kansas City, manager of the Long Belt Lumber company; S. O. Allen of Peckham, T. H. and T. B. Hogs of Shawnee, Okla., retail lumbermen, all of whom are charged with violations of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Read by Burkett.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The senate commemorated the memory of George Washington, whose farewell address was read by Senator Burkett of Nebraska. Not a score of senators were in their places when the session opened at 11 o'clock. The house did not observe the event beyond a reference to it in the prayer of the chaplain.

Litigation Likely.

Tulsa, I. T., Feb. 23.—Judge Lawrence in the Federal court has handed down a decision founded on a provision on the Curtis bill forbidding the taking of leases for a period longer than five years. It means that no leases in expectancy can be made. It is predicted that extensive litigation will follow as the result of the new ruling.

Heard Report of Committee.

Guthrie, Feb. 23.—The constitutional convention considered a report from the committee on private corporations, which seeks to keep the natural gas in the state by not making pipe lines common carriers and refusing them the right of eminent domain. An informal celebration of Washington's birthday was held for about ten minutes.

Curtis Bill Passes.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The Curtis bill giving intermarried Cherokees married prior to Dec. 15, 1905, the right to sell the improvements on land since allotted to Indians was passed by the senate.

Girl Killed, Sisters Hurt.

Shreveport, Feb. 23.—Fannie Lee Colquitt, fourteen years old, was killed by a train at Bossier City, and her two sisters, Mary, aged fifteen, and Penny, aged eleven, injured. The latter will die.

Speedy Shaver.

Hillsboro, Tex., Feb. 23.—In one day W. H. Wood, a local barber, made $20.05. This is claimed the world's record.

EVIDENCE ALL IN.

After Senator Bailey Finishes Testimony He Makes a Speech.

Austin, Feb. 23.—After Senator Bailey concluded his testimony he declared himself innocent of any wrongdoing and announced his purpose of proceeding to Washington and being sworn in for his second senatorial term.

All but two of the house committee voted to end the investigation. There were six of the senate committee present and the vote was a tie—three to three. It was decided to take another vote Saturday.

The full transcript of the case, if given would about fill 2,000 pages of the journal.

McGregor moved that the committee adjourn to 9 o'clock Monday morning for the purpose of making its final findings.

Cobbs said he could not be present Monday and urged that action be made at once.

Chairman O'Neal insisted that prompt action should be taken, as Senator Bailey was in a hurry to go to Washington.

Robertson said that the report of the proceedings would make 2,300 typewritten pages, and he suggested that it be cut down to actual testimony.

McGregor wanted every line of the proceedings in the record, but he was willing to blue pencil some of the arguments.

Bailey said that it would be seven days before the end of the present congress and it was very probable that there would be an extraordinary session of the senate. "I am going to be there," he said. He protested against prolonging the investigation and said the committee was as able to judge of the evidence as any jury. "You can decide this afternoon what you want to do and then the subcommittee can draft the report. I want to leave in time to take the oath of office. There is no doubt about that. I shall leave about the last day of this month," he said. Robertson suggested that a subcommittee be appointed to go over the testimony, and while this is being done Bailey could go on to Washington and come back again.

"Do you think I want to go into the senate with the charges against me?" he said. "I object to any of the testimony being taken out." At this juncture Senator Bailey announced that he was going to retire from the committee room. "If you want me you can send for me," he said.

Jones suggested that the resolution in the house, the charges of Mr. Cocke and the evidence introduced be put in the record.

Cocke insisted that he had some "uncertain and undefined" interest in the matter, but he insisted that the record be published in full.

Walfe was in favor of "doing just what the legislature said for them to do, which was to publish the evidence."

Odell said he would like to be heard at the proper time regarding the proposition to file Cocke's protest.

HAMILTON THE MAN.

Inform House Committee He Secured Requisition For Pierce.

Austin, Feb. 23.—District Attorney Hamilton of Travis and Williamson counties appeared before the house investigating committee Saturday morning and stated that he secured the requisition for H. Clay Pierce upon his own initiative, but he was willing to do all within his power to hold it up until Pierce could come to Texas to testify. This put an end to the statement that the requisition had been inspired by members of the committee.
Senator Bailey insisted that he must be in Washington on March 4. He wants the committees to take action before he leaves.

Before the house investigating committee he told details of how he made the application for the Pierce requisition.
He said he had only read captions of newspaper articles about the Bailey investigation. He read headlines to the effect that Pierce was at the Waldorf-Astoria at New York and thought it useless to try to get him in St. Louis. He suggested to Sheriff Matthews that if possible to hold up the requisition for sixty days. Hamilton wired Matthews at St. Louis to hold up the requisition. He also wired Governor Folk. Matthews wired back for him to do nothing until he saw him. "I will see that Pierce is immune from arrest if he wants to come to Texas. There is no politics in my office," he said. "I do not mean that the prosecution will be dismissed against Pierce. Not on your life. I mean that I would throw nothing in Pierce's way if he wanted to testify here."

Cross-questioned by Odell, the witness said he had not voted for Bailey in the Travis county primaries, but did not take an active part in the primaries. Hamilton said that J. D. Johnson's interview, so far as it involved Mr. Cocke, was false.
